

Name/Date:

Social Studies 11 • Unit 5 • Television and Beyond: The Cold War and Postwar Shifts in Canada 1945-1964

5B: Politics & Prosperity in the 1950s

Lesson Focus Question

- How did Canadian society change in the postwar era?

Main Reference Cranny, M., Moles, G. (2010). Counterpoints: Exploring Canadian Issues. Toronto: Pearson.

Reading: Ch. 6 p. 180-189 (try a quick read thru beforehand)

Image: Louis St. Laurent with his grand children at an Easter family gathering

Source: http://www65.statcan.gc.ca/acyb05/acyb05-01/acyb05-01_0011-eng.htm

Vocab - Provide a brief definition and/or example for the following terms & ideas:

- populist
- referendum
- boom and bust cycle
- megaproject

Notes Topics - your choice of format (use the back of your 11x17 from lesson 5A)

- ☐ Mackenzie King out, St. Laurent in (p. 180-181)
- ☐ St. Laurent out, Diefenbaker in (p. 181)
- ☐ Newfoundland joining Confederation (p. 181-182)
- ☐ Duplessis and Quebec Nationalism (p. 182-183)
- ☐ prosperity in the 50s (p. 184-185)
- ☐ Technology in the 50s (p. 186)
- ☐ American influence (p. 188)
- ☐ Labour & minority issues (p. 189)

Keynote notes - take note of big themes and issues in postwar Canada:

DO
Questions - ~~Do~~ the ones on p. 183 and 189