Written component—needs to be AT LEAST 1 PAGE.

1. Write a 1 paragraph Synopsis of your “film” aka the experiment. It should be written in language that sounds like a preview or movie trailer—really “sell” your experiment.
2. 2 Reviews of the movie/experiment from other prominent psychologists in their field-- ie. Social psychologist reviewing a social psychologist. Using your knowledge of various psychologists, review your experiment from their perspective. For instance, how do you think Zimbardo would feel about Milgram’s shock experiment? Reviews should be 2-3 sentences each. Use the following format..

“dhs of jio gfdjgdjgfd.” – Philip Zimbardo

3. Write 1 paragraph that explains the impact on the field of psychology that your experiment has had. How did it change what we believed about human behavior? What was the significant finding?

Upon completion email word document to boliveira @ cisnd.ca
