

"I Am A Renaissance Person!"
Renaissance and Reformation Inquiry Part 1

A "Renaissance Person" was someone who was not only both skilled and knowledgeable in many areas, but someone who actively sought to improve their own knowledge and intelligence by questioning the world and events around them and seeking out "truthful knowledge" rather than blindly accepting "alternative facts".

Directions and Criteria:

- Your task is to report on a specific topic, invention, historical figure, or specific viewpoint that can be attributed to the Renaissance or Reformation.
- Your report will identify your topic, describe why it interests you, why it is of historical significance, and provide some sort of graphic such as a picture, map, diagram, or informational graph.
